

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Letters in this office for "C. B." and "X. L."

Chester Doyle and his prisoner, Abe, are expected to arrive today, on the steamer China, from Japan.

Albert Horner, John Baker and Eben Low came in on the Mauna Kea from Hawaii yesterday morning.

The seats for "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" will be on sale at Bergstrom's Music Store on Monday morning.

The Civic Federation is planning a celebration of the hundredth anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's death, on February 12.

William Vannatta, Superintendent of Water Works at Hilo, and a well-known contractor, arrived on the Mauna Kea yesterday.

Mauitites refuse to believe the report of Judge Kopoikai's expected early retirement until official word comes from Washington.

Felipe Monte, a Porto Rican, about 45 years of age, was killed Christmas Day by falling from a footbridge over the Opaepilau gulch, in Kaupakalua, Maui.

D. McKenzie, who was manager of Hakalan plantation store for about fourteen years, was lately married in Forfar, Scotland, his bride being Miss Myrtle Gray.

It is stated that Dr. Holman, now the assistant resident physician at the Molokai Settlement, will join the staff of the leprosarium as soon as that institution is opened.

Deputy County Attorney Aluli will not be reappointed by the new County Attorney of Hawaii. It is reported that the County Attorney proposes to do some work himself.

Passengers from Hawaii on the Mauna Kea yesterday report that the Big Island experienced an earthquake shock on Monday last, on the day when the Sicilian disaster occurred.

The band will play today at the departure of the steamer China. The Sunday concert will be held at Aala Park. Monday forenoon the band will play at the inauguration of City and County Government of Honolulu.

Isoi was released yesterday morning from custody, in the Federal Court, pending the results of the grand jury investigation, on $10,000 bail. Thirty witnesses will be subpoenaed to testify before the grand jury in his case.

The dead body of a Porto Rican was found on Saturday morning last in the reservoir at Kaupakalua, Maui. On the same morning the body of a Portuguese was found at Kahului. Both had been over-celebrating Christmas.

Governor John Baker advises Hiloites to establish a Hawaiian park near that city as a tourist attraction, a place where native grass houses can be built, native fruits grown and native life depicted. He also wants a hotel.

Dr. Wayson of the Board of Health has been invited to attend the Bergen Leprosy Conference, to be held under the auspices of the Norwegian Government. Dr. Wayson's invitation came in a personal letter from G. A. Hansen, president of the conference.

The fact that the commission of Judge Parsons has not arrived may make it impossible for the new county officials of Hawaii to assume office on Monday, the bonds of the Supervisors having to be examined by a Circuit Court judge before they can be accepted.

The old saying that 'tis an ill wind which doth nobody good is exemplified in last year's drought. The rise in the price of beef has made the discontented stock-raiser happy, and the almost total disappearance of mosquitoes ought to make the disgruntled consumer forget the additional beef bill tax on his purse.—Maui News.

THE NEW WAY.

He—"Darling, all is over between us."

She—"Oh, George, this is so absurd."—Punch.

"Say, Rufe, what dis I hear 'bout your son Gabe gettin' in trouble at church last Sunday night?" "Taint nothin' serious, parson. He jes' musin' himself some. Broke up de meetin' wid a axe handle, and carve he name on three, of them deacons' face wid a razzor. Dat's all."—Boston Traveler.

Young Parks (grumpily)—I never met a man yet who was on the dead level. Old Marks—My boy, the man on the dead level is only to be found in the cemetery.—Wall Street News.

SUNDAY SERVICES

CENTRAL UNION CHURCH.

Sunday, January 3.

At 9:50, Bible school. Clifton H. Tracy, superintendent. Classes for all ages, beginning the new course of lessons in the Acts and Epistles.

At 10, in the parlor, Men's League Bible class, under the direction of the assistant minister. Beginning the reading course in the Gospels. Subject Sunday morning, "The Origin of the Gospels—Why Four Records."

At 11, morning worship. New Year's sermon by the minister. Special music by the choir.

At 6:30, in the parish house, Christian Endeavor meeting. A New Year's service, "The Duty of Making Good Resolutions," led by the assistant minister.

At 7:30, evening worship. Sermon by the assistant minister, "The Cost of Character, or How to Keep Your Resolutions." Special music by the choir.

Cordial invitation to all to attend these services. Visitors and strangers in the city especially invited.

The Bible Class.

Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, in the parlor of Central Union church, the Men's League Bible Class will begin the study of the Gospels. The first subject will be "The Origin of the Gospels—Why Four Records."

A cordial invitation is again extended to the men of the city to join this group of men in an honest, frank study and discussion of the great facts about the Bible.

The Pastor says: "The work on the Old Testament the past two months has been exceedingly interesting, and there is no reason why our study of the New Testament should not be even more so, because we are getting on historical grounds in the study of these New Testament books and know more about the circumstances under which they were written."

METHODIST CHURCH.

"How to Keep from Fainting" will be the subject of Rev. John W. Wadman's sermon tomorrow morning in the First Methodist Episcopal church at 11 o'clock and in the evening at 7:30 "Character Building." Both addresses will be suitable for the new year. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the morning's service. The public is cordially invited.

"MRS. WIGGS OF THE CABBAGE PATCH."

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" with its carefully-selected Australian company of character artists, which comes to the Honolulu Opera House, is a dramatization by Anne Crawford Flexner of Alice Hegan Rice's two stories, one of the same name and the other called "Lovey Mary." The play itself is both entertaining and an illustration of the beauty, nobility and wide-reaching power of gentleness and unselfish effort to do good. That poor product of the cabbage patch, herself often at the end of her resources, never could turn the wretches from her door. She ministered to every sorrow that came her way, whether it came on two feet or four. "Dear Lord," she prayed, "whatever happens, keep me from gettin' sour." Had she been the most accomplished sermon-maker of her time she could not have more accurately hit the bull's-eye of the spirit of Christian living. Had she sat at the feet of the world's eminent teachers she could have learned no higher good than the religion of sweetness. To describe at length the quaint and droll characters concerned in the play, which will be produced at the Honolulu Opera House, seems quite unnecessary in view of the fact that, to the majority of Americans, Mrs. Wiggs and her associates are already as well known figures of fiction as are Old Scrooge and Micawber, Tom Sawyer and Huckleberry Finn. All of the important personages of Mrs. Rice's two stories appear in the version, and in the migration from book to boards they have not in the least changed in personality; atmosphere and characterization, rather than plot, give value to the play. Mrs. Flexner's handling of the original material has been most sympathetic, and, moreover, she has succeeded in making a play that is as enjoyable to those who have not read the stories as to those who know them by heart.

BACHELOR'S DINNER WAS A JOLLY AFFAIR

Forty-four was the attendance at the Y. M. C. A. New Year dinner last evening, and the affair was one of the pleasantest the building has ever known. Messrs. Robbins and Hunn, Secretary Super, Dr. Hand, and Directors F. C. Atherton and Ed. Towse led in the festivities. The toast list and the set program called forth numbers from Messrs. Oliver, Minchin, Martin, Kelsey, Blanchard and others, and there was much singing of college songs, with Mr. Ewing at the piano.

Felicitations were general over the football victory of the afternoon, and the good feeling of the occasion manifested itself in the interchange of stories and formation of friendships for the new year. Seats were taken promptly at 6 o'clock, and it was nine when the stirring melody of "Auld Lang Syne" drowned the noise of the passing cars. Nearly all of those present were young men who make their association affiliation fill most of their social wants. All these found the dinner and the sociability very satisfying.
